

James Lyon

Full-Stack Engineer

(908) 963-5298 jameslyon42@gmail.com

Summary

An accomplished software engineer looking to build robust applications with modern methodologies. Extremely knowledgeable in all facets of full-stack development. Creator at heart, hungry for new and exciting challenges.

Work Experience

Revintu

January 2014 – Current

Manager, Full-stack engineer

Developed business solutions for various industries including: hospitality, medical and financial. Worked closely with clients to extrapolate business needs and determine project scope. Built core application components ranging from auto dialers to customer payment portals. Responsible for the hiring and training of developers.

Belle Mead Co-op

February 2009 – October 2012

System administrator

Developed applications to solve problems such as managing orders and deliveries. Assisted in website updating. Provided maintenance on SCO Unix server and security camera systems. Imaged and networked POS systems.

Advanced Tech Support

December 2012 – November 2013

Manager, Developer, DBA

Designed and implemented various web applications to track the effectiveness of technicians. Managed an escalations department of remote support technicians. Responsible for the training of other departments on intermediate troubleshooting. Coordinated with oversees vendors. Created a live Linux distribution to aid in virus removals.

RadioShack

February 2007 – January 2009

Manager

Daily responsibilities included creating schedules, making deposits, and guiding employees to meet sale goals. Developed loyal customers by building relationships and resolving conflicts. Improved store performance by increasing sales while reducing return rate.